Our 1935 Harvest Ingathering

S. A. Ruskjer

The wonderful success that crowned the efforts of God's faithful people in the Southern Union in the Harvest Ingathering campaign of 1934 is just an additional indication of the fact that God is ready to do great things for us the moment we are ready to enter into cooperation in the finishing of the Master's work.

The increase in the Harvest Ingathering returns of 1934 above 1933 brought real cheer to mission fields and is an increase that will be seen in the eternal kingdom in the form of hundreds of souls saved from sin.

It was no small undertaking which we entered upon; namely, to reach a goal of $50,000 for our union in 1934 as compared with a receipt of $38,000 for 1933. But as a result of very earnest and very faithful and persevering work on the part of workers and church members alike, the Southern Union not only reached its $50,000 goal but exceeded it by more than $2,000.

As we reach the opening of the Harvest Ingathering campaign for 1935, we do so being conscious of the fact that doors that were closed to us in mission lands one year ago have now been thrown wide open to us. As we enter upon the campaign this year, we certainly must recognize that our responsibility is greater than ever before as we think of the thousands of souls that we can now have access to with our message of truth who a year ago were beyond our reach because of governmental regulations.

God is surely blessing His cause, and He is earnestly entreating every member of the church to take an active part in His cause, and, dear friends, unless we do take an active part as a worker in the cause of God, we can entertain but a faint hope of ever being in Eden Restored. God expects personal service from every one to whom He entrusts a knowledge of the truth for this time, and He has given to every man according to His ability.

We are happy to know that throughout the union, the leaders are taking the lead demonstrating by their personal example that they are deeply in earnest over the matter of making the Harvest Ingathering Campaign not only a successful money-raising campaign, but a successful soul-winning campaign. There are scores in the truth today who have been won entirely as a result of faithful Harvest Ingathering work done by our workers. We hope that in our 1935 campaign still more earnest effort can be made along the line of making it a soul-winning campaign right here in the homeland while raising means with which to win the souls in fields beyond the sea.

TESTIMONIES HEARD AT YOUTH'S CONGRESS

"This Youth's Congress has been a real inspiration to me to live a pure clean Christian life and to live up to the high ideals and standards as discussed during the Congress."

"I am not a member of the church, but it is worth while to me to see the conduct and discipline that is maintained by these young people."

"I surely have gotten a blessing from my first Youth's Congress and am hoping to be at the next one. I think I wouldn't have enjoyed it so much if I hadn't sold magazines to come."

"My vision and determination to have a real part in giving the message has been enlivened by the inspiring appeals I heard at the Youth's Congress."

"In expressing the blessings which I have received in this Youth's Congress, I can say that I leave with these words in my heart, 'Take my life and let it be consecrated, Lord, to Thee.'"

In addition to these statements mentioned above, we have many others which express the same feeling of thankfulness for the inspiration and encouragement of this important gathering of our young people. A number of parents were present at the Congress, and from the statements handed in I gleaned a few quotations from them.

"I, as a parent, want to express myself in regard to the Youth's Congresses that have been held in our Union during these last three years. I believe them to be the best help we can give our young people. If they did no more than just help our young people to realize that they are a part of this great movement, they would be wonderful, but they have accomplished much more."

"Being a mother and a school teacher, I have been connected with young people for years. Truly this Youth's Congress is an inspiration to me to try to lead the young people to a higher standard."

"While I am not within the age limit to be considered an active member of the Youth's Congress, I am young enough in spirit to voice a word of appreciation and commendation for the great good this Congress has done. From an educational and social standpoint alone the effort has certainly been worth while. In my opinion many who are here will learn in the New Earth of the many good seeds planted here in a spiritual way."

The president of Southern Junior College, Professor H. J. Klooster, gives us the following summary of values which he feels the Congress developed this year:

"I believe that the congress has had a definite value as follows:

1. The inspirational value of a beautiful scenic environment.
2. The inspirational value of wholesome association of our young people.
3. The inspirational value of certain sermons which have been preached.
4. The sense of 'belonging' to a great movement."

POSSIBILITIES OF YOUTH

The youth sit and dream of thrilling adventure. Parents plan and pay in order that their children might have the very best educational advantages that will equip them to meet the opportunities of the hour.

Seventh-day Adventist parents are indeed fortunate in that they have advance information, or a blue print, of unfolding events. Wise is that parent, who in the fear of God, stretches before him the counsels of the Almighty and harmonizes the lives of his children to fit that thrilling program.

"God's purpose for the children growing up beside our hearths is wider, deeper, higher, than our restricted vision has comprehended." Weigh that statement for a while, dear parents. What meaning does it contain for you? Think of it! The God of heaven has a purpose for those very boys and girls whose names you will be calling a few minutes after you read this article, that you have not yet comprehended.

"And many a lad of today, growing up as did Daniel in his Judean home, (your child in the Southern Union) studying God's word and his works, and learning the lessons of faithful service, will yet stand in the legislative assemblies and in halls of justice, or in royal courts, for a witness for the King of Kings."

The other day Mussolini told his young sons to enter the army, train for service, go into Ethiopia, and humble those benighted people at the feet of a Roman dictator. What a career planned for his sons by a father!

My eyes fall on a statement before me. "The whole world is opening to the gospel. Ethiopia is stretching out her hands unto God."

Noble Adventist parents, take your boys and girls by the hand, tell them God wants them to enter his training camps (church schools). Tell them the army of the Lord is marching into Ethiopia, and for them to bring trophies of that country and lay them at the feet of Jesus.

There are twenty-two million reasons why every Seventh-day Adventist child should be in God's schools, we shall give only two at this writing:

Train for service

Train for eternity.

WILLS, LEGACIES, AND BEQUESTS: No. 3

What view of the situation would surely lead to a reform in the matter of Christian benevolence?

"If the eyes of all could be opened to see how prevailing covetousness has hindered the advancement of the work of God, and how much more might have been done had all acted upon God's plan in tithes and offerings, there would be a decided reform on the part of many; for they would not dare to hinder the work of advancing the cause as they have done. The church is asleep as to the work it might do if it would give up all for Christ. A true spirit of self-sacrifice would be an argument with the reality and power of the gospel which the world could not misunderstand or gainsay, and abundant blessings would be poured upon the church."—Testimonies, Vol. 4, pp. 483, 484.

What should Christians look upon themselves as being?

"Christians must look upon themselves only as channels through which mercies and blessings are to flow from the Fountain of all goodness to their fellowmen, by whose conversion they may send to heaven waves of glory in praise and offerings from those who thus become partakers with them of the heavenly gift."—Testimonies, Vol. 4, p. 485.

Do men often manifest less prudence and foresight in the matter of disposing of their property at death, than in other matters?

"I have been shown that some men who are shrewd, prudent, and sharp in regard to transactions of business, generally men who are distinguished for promptness, manifest a want of foresight and promptness in regard to a proper disposal of their property while they are living. They know not how soon their probation may close; yet they pass on from year to year with their business unsettled and frequently their lives close without their having the use of their reason. Or one may die suddenly, without a moment's warning and their property be disposed of in a manner that they would not have approved. These are guilty of negligence; they are unfaithful stewards."—Id. Vol. 3, p. 116.

The Making of Wills

For the benefit of any who desire such information, we will state that most of our larger state conferences have legal associations. The articles under which these associations are incorporated have been carefully drawn to meet the requirements of the laws of the state in which the association is located. They include the holding of the property, either real or personal.

It should always be borne in mind that a will is of no value at all, unless made to some individual or to a legal corporation.

Wills are drawn in such a variety of forms that it is always the safest way to have them drawn by a competent attorney.

That God's richest blessing may rest upon all who shall study these readings, and that a true spirit of liberality, in keeping with the solemn message committed to this people, may take possession of every believer in this message is the prayer of the compiler.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

Sabbath, August the third, I spent with the colored church at Columbus. At the close of the service, one sister for whom Brother Braddock has been working, desired to unite with the church.

From the questions asked, she seemed to be in full harmony, and there are now two candidates for baptism at Columbus.

Saturday night I spent at Okolona, where Brother Ewing is holding meetings. As Brother Ewing had left on Friday for Meridian to see me, I did not get to talk with him about the situation there.

Sunday morning I visited the little colored church which is located about twelve miles out of West Point. The company there seemed to enjoy the visit, and are very anxious to have a church school again this year.

From West Point, I went to Mathiston where Brother Lamar Cooper is holding his meeting. Brother G. E. Crawford is associated with him, and when I arrived, Brother Crawford was out in the country holding a meeting. That night was very hot. If all the people had been in the tent, no doubt every seat would have been taken. There were many sitting around the tent outside. Brother Cooper spoke on the Sabbath question, and his congregation readily took the literature he had to offer, and several stopped after the meeting to discuss the truth. Brother Cooper is very hopeful of getting a good church organization at Mathiston.

R. I. Keate.

ALABAMA-MISSISSIPPI NEWS NOTES

In a report just received from Elder Lanier, regarding the Sunday night congregation of August the fourth, he said: "Last night we had one of our largest congregations. The tent was quite well filled with a goodly number on the outside."

Brother McClure, in writing from Utica, says: "Last night we spoke on the Sabbath question to a full tent, or more. Several have expressed themselves as believing what was presented." Brother McClure has been doing quite well in offerings.

Elder Rubendall started a series of Sunday night meetings on August the fourth. On Sabbath, August 3, he baptized two at Prichard and more will be ready by the last of the month.

Mrs. Thurber, who has been connected with our office now for two months or more, is planning to return to her home this week. We very much appreciated the efficient work that Sister Thurber has done in connection with our office, and now that Brother Clyde Franz has been installed in his place as secretary-treasurer and Brother John Jansen as Book and Bible House secretary-treasurer, Sister Thurber believes it is time she was leaving. We feel that we have two very efficient men in the office, and as this is more help than we have had in the past, we are expecting that we will be able to render probably better service than we have been able to do in the past. Remember to make all remittances for the conference to the conference and remittances for the Book and Bible House should be made out to that organization.

Remember it is now time to get ready for Harvest Ingathering.

August the 24th is set apart as a day for fasting and prayer. A special message has been sent out to all our churches to be read on that date.

Watch our colporteur reports grow! Brother Luke Galjour and Brother J. D. Norris each went over the $1000 mark in sales, thus helping us to go above $8000 for the month.

UNWISE ECONOMY

There is an economy that is never wise or right. It is economy in making the truth available to men. In these tragic times to which we have come, mankind needs the truth of God for these last days. When the times are hard, our friends and neighbors need its comfort; when the outlook is discouraging we recognize that those about us need its confidence; when despair is abroad, humanity needs its word of hope. There are luxuries that may well be spared, there are even necessities that can be curtailed, but the need of the Third Angel's Message is indispensable at all times, and is still more indispensable in times like these today. The Word of God is not a book of political maxims nor of economic theories. It is not a book of maxims or theories at all. It is a book of living principles, its spirit is the spirit of brotherliness and good will, it is a summons to helpfulness: "Bear ye one another's burdens." It is a summons also to self-respecting independence: "Let every man bear his own burden." It teaches charity but also justice, it calls us to the giving and serving which the strong owe to the weak, and those who have to those who lack; it also strikes straight and clear at the moral difficulties in individuals which are responsible for a large part of the poverty and suffering of the world, and also at the moral and economic difficulties in society, in business relations, and in the distribution of the common resources of the world, which are responsible for the remaining part.

Christ is the only hope of individuals and of society, and the Bible is the only book which tells His history. It alone preserves His words which are spirit and life; it alone records His deeds by which He saved the world and would save it now if we would obey Him. He expects us now to spread the Gospel of present truth for this time. The best thing judgment-bound Christians can do is to spread the tidings of the Word and to get it read and obeyed.

As we do our Ingathering this year, let us do the work in the spirit of witnessing, for when the witness is sufficiently wide-spread there will be an enlightening grasp of righteousness take hold of the honest in heart and such as should be saved. If mankind everywhere can be brought to the realization of their need of the power of God in their lives as demonstrated in the Word, this would assuage hard times, poverty, unemployment, injustice, wrong, and war.

The last place to economize is in our efforts to spread the truth, either through personal effort or literature ministry or in whatever way our resources and personal effort will allow. We are counting on 100 per cent response to the Harvest Ingathering effort on the part of our approximately 2000 believers here in the Carolinas this year.

R. F. Woods.

HARVEST INGATHERING

Enthusiastic word has just been received that both Valle Crucis and Banners Elk churches have reached the Harvest Ingathering goal set for them by the conference and are working toward doubling the amount. Elder W. L. Adkins has given them capable leadership, and he will no doubt put every church assigned to him over the top.

Word has also just been received from the General Conference Jewish Department urging us not to solicit among the Jews this year from Friday evening, September 27, to Sunday evening, September 29. These are Jewish new year days. The Jewish people are not supposed to handle money during this time. The Jews should not be solicited from Sunday afternoon, October 6, to after sunset Monday, October 7, as this is the Day of Atonement, called Yom Kippur by the Jews.

All who solicit Jews this year are requested to secure the names and addresses of those who contribute $2.00 or more to our Ingathering work, so that they can be followed up with special literature.

Many of our churches will want to order supplies of "Good News" to follow up the interested ones found in the Ingathering work. We hope several churches will order from 1000 to 5000 of "Good News" on subjects dealing with the signs of the times for use in connection with their Ingathering work.

We should be careful to get the names and addresses of all interested ones found which should be recorded on a solicitor's card. These lists should then be given to the missionary secretary to be kept for a consistent follow-up effort.

Supplies of Harvest Ingathering cans are available on request from the conference office. New can labels have also been sent to the elders of all our churches so that the cans now on hand may be prepared for this year's work.

Minute Men this year will raise $11.08, while the juniors under fifteen years of age will be awarded insignia for the support of the work for half a minute by raising $5.54. There will be regular investiture days, and the list of those entitled to the Minute Men symbols or insignia should be sent in to the conference office several days before the investiture dates in each instance. All of this information has been given in detail in our organization bulletin sent to the elders and leaders of all the churches.

Several Carolina churches are beginning their Ingathering work at once and are having good success in making the solicitation before other drives divide the interest and donations from our friends. Business houses should be worked carefully at the very beginning of the campaign, then the house-to-house solicitation, street work, letter writing, and singing bands.

Singing band work should always be regarded as a gleanings method, and all other methods of solicitation should be done before the singing bands begin to operate.

Printed canvasses have been provided in liberal quantities for all. Every worker should study the canvass before going out soliciting and know what to say. Every one should build his appeal around what he has learned from the canvass.

Let us make a tremendous effort to finish the Ingathering in every church in seven weeks after soliciting has begun. Divide your church goal in seven parts and then make a determined effort to get one-seventh each week. This will insure reaching the entire church goal in a short time, which will put pleasure into the effort of meeting our friends and asking their support. Concerted action on the part of every member will enable our churches to do a quick and effective work in this way. We hope that half our churches can be over their goals by the middle to the last of October.

Duplex envelopes will be provided by the conference office upon request for those who wish to write friends at a distance, sending letter and magazine together. All our elders and leaders have been supplied with newspaper publicity articles and information about localizing the material for presentation to editors of local newspapers. It is none too early in some sections of our conference to get the work started, and we urge that we begin as soon as possible, leaving no stone unturned to do our Ingathering work this year quickly and effectively.

HOME MISSIONARY CONVENTION AND CHURCH DEDICATION

A two days' meeting will be held at Greeneville, Tennessee, August 24 and 25 in honor of the completion of the new brick church building, which has been erected on the grounds adjoining the Takoma Sanitarium and Hospital.

Elder Ruskjer and other workers will be present on this occasion and our people throughout the conference are invited to attend. Especially will the churches and isolated members in the eastern end of Tennessee be expected to attend.

Our all day Home Missionary Convention will be held Sabbath, the 24th, and we are asking all who attend on this day to kindly bring their lunches, which can be eaten in the basement of the church or under the shade of the trees.

On Sunday the dedication service will be held in the afternoon, at which time many of the townspeople will be present and all Seventh-day Adventists are invited to attend. H. E. Lysinger.

AUGUSTA TENT EFFORT

Just a few words from our work here in Augusta. The Lord is blessing us with large crowds from night to night. Apparently the people are very interested so we are praying hard that they will continue to attend.

Twice a week we are conducting a Story Hour in the afternoon for the children. Remembering that "A Little Child Shall Lead Them," we hope to be able to reach hearts which would otherwise be missed.

Our largest crowd was present the other night to hear the subject: "The Soul of man—What Is It?" We feel grateful that such a number could learn the great Bible truths concerning the soul.

We are in our fifth week now and nearing the crisis. Please may we ask that every reader join us in earnest prayer that our interested crowds be not "forgetful hearers, but doers of the word."

Margaret E. Caldwell.

GEORGIA-CUMBERLAND NEWS NOTES

The Georgia-Cumberland Harvest Ingathering Campaign opened officially last Sabbath and already a number of returns have been received. Atlanta has about $100, Savannah has somewhat over $100, Macon has $100, and Augusta reports around $50. Igou Gap has been out singing and brought in $9.00 one evening. The children are catching the spirit too, and Junior bands are being organized in various churches. A number of children already have reached their goal of $5.54 and some have passed the $11.08 mark. Orders are steadily coming in for supplies and we are doing our best to get them into the churches "post haste." "My people shall be willing in the day of my power," saith the Lord, and truly they are. Now we are anxious to hear from you as to what you and your church are doing. Drop a postal to us this week.

THE EDUCATION OF DESPAIR

"Lester became an atheistic evolutionist while studying geology as a freshman. From a textbook in geology he learned to believe in 'evolution as opposed to supernatural creation.' He learned too, that 'evolution is an utterly godless, materialistic process.'

In his study of the social sciences he learned that there is no hope of a hereafter, and that he must unite his talent with those forces that are seeking through revolutionary procedure to create a communistic Utopia. Thus socialism became to him a religion, to which he dedicated and devoted himself as unstintingly as he once had given himself to Christ.

You will want to read the story of Lester in the September Watchman Magazine. He typifies the average American youth who matriculates today in the various courses in the colleges and universities of the country. It reveals the startlingly pathetic trend of current education, and sounds a warning note to the fathers and mothers of American youth who are planning for the education and life work of the leaders of tomorrow.

During recent weeks, federal and state senatorial investigations in two large universities proved conclusively that communism and rank atheism are being taught in many of the textbooks used in various departments, and that it is becoming increasingly difficult for a student to matriculate in the average college or university without including some textbooks which are thoroughly saturated with these deceptive philosophies.

This is only one of several fascinating articles in the September Watchman, an unusually interesting number. Other articles include, "The War Dogs Howl for Armageddon," "State Aid to Denominational Schools," "Keep Marriage Off the Rocks," and additional items of real merit.

OAKWOOD JUNIOR COLLEGE

HUNTSVILLE, ALABAMA

OAKWOOD JUNIOR COLLEGE

Summer School has closed. The teachers who attended have expressed their appreciation of the good instruction which they received. At the Friday evening vespers, after a helpful study by Professor Ashby, opportunity was given for a testimony service, and the response was encouraging.

Words of appreciation continue to come from those who are listening to our Male Quartette as they give their programs before civic clubs and in churches. While the amount of money being received is not large, it is certain that this "good-will" tour is making many friends for the school.

Definite plans are shaping for many to be here on the opening day of school, and many others are still hopeful that necessary arrangements can be made before that time. Remember that Sept. 9 and 10 are registration days for the first Semester.

Picnics and swimming parties are helping to make the summer pleasant for the students who are working hard to lay up a credit for the months to come.

An efficient corps of officers is carrying on the work of the Sabbath school and the Missionary Volunteer departments in a strong way during this vacation period. For the summer months, we have an unusually large number of singers with us who are adding their part to making these services interesting.

We regret that Sister Knight finds it necessary to leave for other duties. We have greatly appreciated her presence here as preceptress and teacher.

Elder Fountain was here for the Sabbath, coming over from Florence where he is holding an effort. We always appreciate the timely messages which he brings.

President Moran is still in the East working hard in behalf of interesting students in coming to Oakwood. We are glad to report that his work is bearing much fruit.

Burton Castle.

Obituaries

Hale—Mrs. J. C. Hale was born at Barnesville, Georgia, July 8, 1860, and fell asleep in Jesus, July 9, 1935 at her home on Log Cabin Drive, Macon, Georgia.

About forty years ago she heard the present truth message and took her stand with the commandment-keeping people of God. When the church was organized in Macon in 1909 she became a charter member and was a very faithful worker until death. One of her great desires was to see the church for which she labored so earnestly and helped to build up, filled with members. During her last illness as word was taken to her of new members and interested ones her face would light up and she would praise God for answered prayers.

She leaves to mourn: three sons, three daughters, grand children, brothers and sisters, and a host of friends. As we think of her devoted life our hopes brighten, knowing that if we are faithful, we will see her in just a little while on the resurrection morning when Jesus comes to claim His own.

M. E. Chapman.

Shultz—Harry Shultz, the small son of Brother and Sister D. M. Shultz was born on March 12, 1934 at Macon, Georgia and went to sleep in Jesus July 15, 1935 at the age of sixteen months and three days. This is a bitter experience for parents, but their new-found faith gives them courage to press on, knowing that in just a little while, when Jesus comes, he will again be placed in their arms and grow up in a land where there will be no more sorrow, nor sickness, nor pain or death. Besides his parents, three brothers and other relatives mourn their loss.

M. E. Chapman.

Watts—Brother Watts was born in Charlotte, North Carolina; accepted the Third Angel's message at an early stage of life; serving the church as elder for a number of years; and lived a consistent Christian life to the end. He loved the church, as was demonstrated in his active relations to all of its departments. He planned for his funeral, and we carried out as he had wished. Second Timothy 4: 6, 7, 8 were the Scriptures used in giving the parting words by the writer.

P. M. Boyd.

Self—Polly Jane Self, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Self of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, was born June 17, 1932, and fell asleep July 23, 1935, age three years, one month, and six days. Polly Jane especially enjoyed attending Sabbath school and talking about Jesus. She was fond of singing, and one of her favorite songs was "Jesus Loves Me," which was sung at the funeral by twelve little girls. The services were conducted by the writer in the home of her parents, and we gently laid her to rest in the cemetery close by. To all parents who are faithful and true to God until the end, Jesus has promised that His angel will place such little ones in the arms of their mothers.

COLLEGEDALE NEWS NOTES

Harvest Ingathering has begun in earnest at the College. Saturday night a number of young ladies, properly chaperoned, solicited in Chattanooga and succeeded in raising twenty-five dollars. The next night a singing band obtained over ten dollars. Let us remember the young people in our prayers that they may have success in this important work.

Mr. and Mrs. Halvorsen and family are spending a brief vacation in Indiana and Ohio. While away they will attend the annual Murphy family reunion at Coburntown, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cruise, who have made their home at Collegedale for the past three years, have just moved back to Atlanta in order to be convenient for Mr. Cruise. Joe will remain in the dormitory the coming year.

Miss Carolyn Louis returned to Atlanta last week where she will teach the coming year.

Miss Irma Storey has just returned to her home in Columbus, Ga., where she will spend a few weeks before taking up her teaching duties at the Pisgah Institute.

Miss Vivian Boyd, after completing her work at the College, is enjoying a rest at her home in Griffin, Georgia. She will teach at Johnson City the coming year.

Mrs. F. H. Artress and children motored to Washington, D. C., yesterday where Mr. Artress has had work during the summer.

Miss Verda Wade spent a short vacation here at Collegedale. She has returned to California, where she is taking a course in dietetics.

Recent visitors at the College were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Deyo of Atlanta, Mr. and Mrs. Westermeyer of Colorado, Mrs. Westermeyer and children of Knoxville, and Elder J. G. White and daughter of Madison.

Picnics and excursions are still very popular during the hot weather. The boys of the Furniture, Farm, and Construction Departments have recently had outings at Graysville, Ga. They report having enjoyed boating, swimming, and good lunches.

It is interesting to note the happy expressions on the faces of those who pass the girls' home when they see the rapid progress being made in the construction of the new porch.

THE GREAT AMERICAN DESERT

"The great American desert," said a thoughtful writer, "is not out in Arizona and New Mexico; it is under the hat of the average American." What is the condition of that part of America which lies under your hat? Is it cultivated land bearing full crops? or is it wasteland, desert? The mind garden doesn't grow beautiful of itself without cultivation. If neglected, it runs to weeds just as any other garden.

Last year some three thousand persons of all ages were cultivating their mind gardens under the guidance of the Home Study Institute or one of its branches. You can join this family now, and enter upon a new and very satisfying phase of Christian living. The Institute offers nearly a hundred courses covering a wide range of college and high school work. Its courses of study are interesting and thorough-going; it prepares for life, and for its work, students receive full credit. Our catalogue is now ready and may be had for the asking.
